

TINNITUS

AUSTRALIA

JOHN SMITH
COMMUNITY ENABLEMENT LEAD

John has worked to create more inclusive, connected and fair communities for more than 30 years. He is Soundfair's representative on the Tinnitus Australia Advisory Committee. He is passionate about engaging and enabling people, especially those who are too often marginalised and voiceless, building social capital, leading advocacy campaigns and creating the conditions for equity.

John has worked in community facing, consulting and management roles in the homelessness and local government sectors in Victoria, Queensland, New Zealand and Northern Ireland, working closely with diverse communities to imagine and co-create impactful local projects.